Senior PHP Developer

Requirements

- Experience in web development with PHP and LAMP stack
- At least 5 years of working experience with these technologies

- Considered as a Plus
- Experience of DB development with MySql
- Experience of React, NodeJS or TypeScript
- Experience with design systems, Storybook
- Experience in designing microservices and REST APIs with OpenAPI specification
- Experience in working and designing with databases such as Postgres and DynamoDB is considered a plus
- Experience of developing in AWS environment
- Fluent English skills (both written and verbal)
- Proficient in developing high-quality code
- Team player and able to closely collaborate with colleagues
- Basic knowledge and experience in using agile working methods
- BSc or MSc degrees in computer science or engineering is a plus

Responsibilities

- Acting as a senior / mid level developer as part of development team
- Analysis, design and development with the above mentioned technologies
- Effort estimation for own tasks
- Maintain high standards of software quality within the team
- Make projects research and expand the know-how of the team
- Communication with other team members and customer in English
- Reporting of the activities performed